Drug Possession Conviction Impacts Your Life

More than ever, people are being charged with possession of drugs for personal use. Given the difficult economic state, many people are choosing to plead guilty on their own. This may have significant consequences unknown to the unrepresented.

By simply pleading guilty, a person subjects themselves to:

- 1 A criminal history reflecting a misdemeanor drug conviction;
- 2 A six month driver's license suspension for a first offense with enhancements for subsequent convictions or guilty pleas;
- 3 A period of probation or incarceration; and
- 4 Fines and costs.

If you, a loved one, or a friend, have been charged with drug possession, please contact Attorney Shawn Curry at scurry@cmlaw1.com or 1-800-615-0115 to set up a free consultation.

"If you lose the power to laugh, you lose the power to think."

DRIVERS LICENSING LEGISLATIVE ALERT

Has your license been suspended for five years or more? Senate Bill 429 of 2009 is pending. If passed, the bill will reduce the minimum required waiting periods for probationary license eligibility by 50%. To support this bill contact Senator Robert Wonderling, Main Capitol Building, Harrisburg or click Senate Bill 429 to learn more.

If you have any questions feel free to contact Attorney Dave Hershey at dhershey@cmlaw1.com or call toll free 1-800-615-0115.

Colgan Takes to the Stage

Timothy J. Colgan
tcogan@cmlaw1.com

Tim Colgan recently performed as the Scarecrow in the York County Bar Association's "The Wizard of Law."

Members of the York County Bar Association perform a parody that pokes fun at lawyers and judges, which was written and produced by York attorney Tom O'Shea. The sold out event at the York Little Theater raises money for charity.

This year's story was about a young lawyer, Dorothy, who was trying to save her aunt's farm from an eminent domain lawsuit filed by the county. Dorothy makes three friends on her journey to meet the "Wizard of Law", the Scarecrow (a lawyer without a brain), the Tin Man (a lawyer without a heart) and the Cowardly Lion (a lawyer without any courage). In the end, Dorothy learns there is no Wizard of Law but that to become a good lawyer you just need to practice, practice, practice... and have a little fun!
